– Product Lifecycle – Letter No. 17/41 EM DG PRO
Announcement of discontinuation and termination of delivery

By this letter we formally inform you about the present schedule of the discontinuation of EM DG PRO products. The products listed below are herewith announced to be discontinued in the future. During the phase-out period starting now the products are still available until the termination of delivery date, typically for 2 years unless otherwise stated. These products should not be used for new substation projects any more. Typically repair service is provided for a 10 years period after the announcement of discontinuation.

Product	Date of announcement of discontinuation	Termination of delivery date	Successive Product
